Investors Community Bank names new Banking Services Manager; Business Banking Officer in Green Bay

(Manitowoc, WI, June 7, 2019) Investors Community Bank is pleased to welcome Jason Wery and Kristy Stiefvater to its Green Bay team.

Jason Wery has joined the bank as AVP – Banking Services Manager. In his role, Wery is responsible for the day-to-day operational activities of the banking center. As a primary relationship builder and community advocate within the Greater Green Bay area, Wery will ensure a high level of customer service is provided, as well as maintain compliance with bank policies and procedures. He brings 10 years of banking experience to ICB, with eight of those years in branch management.

Wery was born and raised in Green Bay. He and his wife Kristina have three children and enjoy spending time together at school and sporting events. He is actively involved in coaching youth baseball and football.

Business Banking Officer Kristy Stiefvater has also joined the Green Bay banking team. In her new role, Stiefvater is responsible for forming commercial banking relationships with new customers, growing existing customer relationships and developing other business opportunities in the Greater Green Bay area. She has more than 10 years of banking experience and joined ICB in 2014 as a loan services manager for the business banking team.

Stiefvater and her husband have two daughters. Her free time is family time, which they spend golfing, kayaking and playing Legos.
