ICB’s David Coggins Speaks at American Bankers Association Conference

(Manitowoc, WI, November 15, 2017) David Coggins, Executive Vice President – Chief Banking Officer at Investors Community Bank recently spoke as a panelist during two workshop sessions at the American Bankers Association National Agriculture Bankers Conference in Milwaukee.

The first presentation, entitled “Opportunities for Success in Lending for Rural Infrastructure and Development,” focused on opportunities available to bankers by utilizing the USDA guaranteed loan programs to support lending for rural transportation, energy and utilities infrastructure projects. His second presentation, entitled “Recruiting the Next Ag Banker,” featured a panel of experts sharing strategies on how to build and retain a successful, high-performing ag banking team, as experienced ag bankers retire.

Coggins has been with ICB since 2009, and has nearly 40 years of lending and leadership experience. He holds a bachelor’s degree from UW-River Falls and is actively involved in many community and professional organizations, including serving as a board member and finance committee member for Progress Lakeshore and a member of the Wisconsin Bankers Association Government Relations Committee.

Investors Community Bank, a wholly-owned subsidiary of County Bancorp, Inc., is committed to serving the financial needs of businesses, farmers and families in our communities.
