Seniors invited to free program on identity theft prevention

(Stevens Point, WI, June 27, 2017) Area seniors are invited to a free program entitled “Safe Banking for Seniors: Preventing Identity Theft” on July 19th at Investors Community Bank, 5517 Vern Holmes Dr. The free program is being offered from 10 – 11 a.m.

“Identity theft can occur in many different forms and seniors are often targeted,” stated JoAnn Rutta, AVP – Banking Services Manager, Stevens Point. “We want to make seniors and their caregivers in our community aware of the risks of identity theft, so that they are adequately informed to protect themselves.”

The program will address the many forms of identity theft, including dumpster diving, impersonating a legitimate business or organization, sending fake emails in an attempt to garner personal information, stealing your wallet or stealing your mail. To register, call (715) 254-3400 or email lavery@investorscommunitybank.com.
