Investors Community Bank Welcomes Craig Rogan, VP-Ag Banking Officer

(Manitowoc, WI, March 19, 2020) Investors Community Bank, a subsidiary of County Bancorp, Inc. (NASDAQ:ICBK), recently welcomed Craig Rogan, Vice President – Ag Banking Officer to its team.

Rogan is primarily based out of the Stevens Point banking center, and is responsible for oversight of an agricultural banking portfolio that includes dairy, vegetable, grain and potato operations in Central Wisconsin. He is a driven, entrepreneurial leader, understanding and addressing the complex needs of agricultural clients, efficiently financing their goals and providing market insight and industry-specific ideas to help them gain a competitive advantage.

Rogan is a member of the Wisconsin Bankers Association Agriculture Board. He joins ICB with more than 20 years of experience in banking, most recently as an ag lender with BMO Harris Bank.

Outside of the bank, Rogan is involved with his children's sports activities, coaching basketball and soccer through the hoops program. He resides in Stevens Point with his wife Lindsay, two daughters and a stepdaughter.

Investors Community Bank, a wholly-owned subsidiary of County Bancorp, Inc., is committed to serving the financial needs of businesses, farmers and families in our communities. Founded in 1997, Investors has become one of the most successful bank startups in Wisconsin's history and has full service offices in Appleton, Green Bay, Manitowoc and Stevens Point, as well as Loan Production Offices in Eau Claire, Sheboygan, Darlington and Fond du Lac.
