Seniors invited to free program on safe banking

(Stevens Point, WI, April 20, 2017) Area seniors are invited to a free program entitled “Safe Banking for Seniors” on April 29th at Lincoln Center, 1519 Water St. Sponsored by Investors Community Bank, the program is being offered at two different times: 9:30 – 10:30 a.m. and 11 a.m. – 12 p.m.

“We want to help older customers and their financial caregivers understand the risks of fraud and financial abuse,” stated JoAnn Rutta, AVP – Banking Services Manager, Stevens Point. “That’s why Investors Community Bank is participating in the Safe Banking for Seniors campaign.”

The program will address financial abuse against older Americans and the many forms it can take, including third-party scams, unauthorized withdrawals and illegal debits. To register, call (715) 254-3400 or email lavery@investorscommunitybank.com.
