ICB to purchase Manitowoc Company headquarters

Bank agrees to purchase the former building on 44th Street

(Manitowoc, WI, January 15, 2018) Investors Community Bank CEO Tim Schneider announced that the bank has agreed to purchase the former Manitowoc Company headquarters at 2400 S. 44th Street in Manitowoc and is planning on moving to the site at a future date.

“As ICB continues to grow, we are nearing capacity in our existing space. We are currently housed in two buildings at our Rapids Road location, so we wanted to look at larger facility options and remain in the community,” said Schneider. “The former Manitowoc Company building is a perfect fit for our employees and space needs, as it also allows for future expansion under one rooftop.”

Added Schneider: “We are thrilled to be able to expand into this space and make a long-term commitment to Manitowoc County. Our roots were formed in this community more than 20 years ago when we first opened Investors Community Bank, and this move solidifies our dedication to remaining a viable part of this area, as well as the regional banking community.”

He said they are currently working on a facilities transition plan, and no timeline has been set for the move. More details will be forthcoming.
