Investors Insurance Services Welcomes Krissy Johnston

(Manitowoc, WI, January 31, 2018) Investors Insurance Services, a subsidiary of Investors Community Bank, has added Krissy Johnston as a Crop Insurance Specialist. Johnston, who will be based out of Eau Claire, has worked in the crop insurance industry for the past 17 years, serving the risk management needs of the agriculture industry.

Johnston was born and raised on a dairy farm outside of Durand, WI and currently operates a beef farm west of Mondovi with her husband Jeremy and their two children. She is a graduate of Durand High School.

Investors Insurance Services agricultural insurance specialists can help area farmers with everything from choosing coverage to answering questions about policies, and filing claims. IIS would like to remind farmers who want to sign up for new crop coverage, or who wish to make changes to current coverage, they must do so by March 15. Multi-peril crop insurance (MPCI) policies automatically renew every year unless the insured makes changes. Call Krissy at (715) 579-6794 for information on IIS crop insurance options.
